COURSE OBJECTIVES:

These courses are designed for teachers of English at Secondary level (ages 11 – 18) and in adult education.

They are highly practical courses providing new skills and ideas for using digital technologies to teach English and for motivating learners through activities based on computers and mobile devices.

Participants work with websites, tools and digital technology so that they will be able to use them confidently in class. They will come away with a range of materials adapted and produced on the course.

COURSE CONTENT:

- 1. Workshops: Using Technology for Teaching English (4, 5 or 6 days)
with expert TEFL trainers such as Graham Workman and Lucy Norris

A variety of approaches and ideas for using technology to teach English will be introduced including:

- examining effective classroom pedagogies for technology
- ICT language needed to work with a range of technologies for lesson preparation
- guidance and practice using computers and other devices to design lesson materials
- the production of lesson materials for your learners
- recommended web-based resources for teaching English
- the creation of open web-based learning areas for all your classes
- how and why to make and use wikis and podcasts
- exploiting and creating videos for learning
- practice using your computer to mark written work and provide feedback
- using web 2.0 tools creatively for in and out of class projects & homework
- ideas for motivating learners through activities which use technology to engage their imaginations and creativity
- using smartphones and Apps for learning English inside and outside the classroom

The course will involve working with online materials in order to adapt them for lessons with your learners, and you will need to bring a laptop for use when accessing and working on materials in the practical workshop sessions.

You should also bring a smartphone.

- 2. Lecture & Discussion: The Education System & The Place of New Technologies in teaching Modern Foreign Languages & other subjects in British Secondary schools
- 3. Educational visit to Welsh Open Air Museum & St Fagans Castle from Cardiff or Winchester from Southampton
- 4. Day visits to 2 secondary Schools or Colleges with an opportunity to observe lessons (Cardiff 2 week courses only)
- 5. Illustrated Lecture on Welsh History, Culture & Traditions (Cardiff 2 week courses only)
- 6. Advanced Language Practice and New Developments in the English Language (certain 2 week courses only)

LOCATIONS:

CARDIFF, Wales: Population: 330,000; 150 miles (240 kilometres) west of London (2¾ hours by rail).

Cardiff, the capital city of Wales, situated on the south coast of Wales, is a lively cultural centre. Its impressive Millennium Stadium hosts a wide variety of international sports and major music events. Cardiff's attractions include: Cardiff Bay, Cardiff Castle, National Museum and Gallery, Llandaff Cathedral, a hands-on science centre, historic shopping arcades and colourful gardens and parks.

Nearby are beautiful coastal scenery and beaches and the Brecon Beacons National Park.

The most convenient airports: Cardiff Airport (rail or bus to city centre), Heathrow or Bristol Airports (direct National Express coach from both to Cardiff)

SOUTHAMPTON, England: Population: 220,000; 80 miles (128 kilometres) south-west of London (1¼ hours by rail).

Southampton is a pleasant university town and an important port situated on the south coast, within easy reach of the New Forest, Winchester, Salisbury, Portsmouth, Bournemouth and the Isle of Wight. There is an historic old town, interesting museums, a new waterside development and an excellent shopping centre.

The most convenient airports: Southampton (rail to city centre), Heathrow (direct National Express coach to Southampton) or Gatwick (direct coach or rail to Southampton)

TRAVEL:

Transport at the beginning and end of the course is not provided and InterEducation regrets that it is unable to assist with travel arrangements.

Please check the most convenient airports above. If arriving at other airports, travel to the course location is generally via central London by coach or rail.

There is also a useful website www.traveline.info which will assist in planning a journey within the UK using every form of transport.

TOTAL PRICE (as detailed on Page 1) comprises:

(a) COURSE FEE: to include:

Full programme of study sessions and visits as itemised above.

NB. Participants are responsible for paying their own daily transport costs, including transport to schools.

Optional visits are not included in the price.

(b) HOST FAMILY ACCOMMODATION: to include:

Full board accommodation with a local family (inclusive of registration fee): 8 or 12 nights

(Teachers may request to be the only guest of their mother tongue or to stay in the same family as a colleague).

Host families are carefully selected and offer a friendly welcome and opportunities to chat and learn more about life in Britain today. Participants often find that the experience of staying with a host family is one of the most memorable aspects of the course. Accommodation is in single rooms (unless participants request to share). Breakfast, packed lunch and evening meal are provided by the host family. (Food allergies, likes and dislikes are taken into account.)

Please note that many of the suitable residential areas are not within walking distance of the town centre, and most host families are an easy bus ride from the town centre/tuition centre. Local transport from host families to the town centre and local schools is at the participants' own expense and is likely to cost 15-30 Euro per week.

Additional nights with host families can be arranged, giving participants extra time for individual research and visits. Accommodation can be provided for family members (but not unaccompanied children) subject to availability. (Rates on request).

On the courses listed below there is a choice of host family accommodation or

Self-catering accommodation in a university residence or similar in a central location - single bedroom with en-suite shower/ wc; no meals provided (inclusive of registration fee):

Cardiff 8-20 July (12 nights)

Total fee including course + Self-catering accommodation:

€ 1948

Cardiff 7-15 July (8 nights)

Total fee including course + Self-catering accommodation:

€ 1457

On other courses participants wishing to arrange their own (hotel or self-catering) accommodation may pay a fee for the course only.

PAYMENT:

Full payment will be due 2 months before the course begins, or for teachers awaiting funding – as soon as the grant is received.

Cancellation charges apply for cancellations 4 weeks or less before the course commences. 3-4 weeks before arrival: cancellation fee: 380 Euros.

No refund for cancellations within 3 weeks of arrival. Applicants are strongly advised to take out cancellation insurance.

PREPARATION: Participants complete a detailed questionnaire before the course starts to ascertain their level of experience and training, as well as the age groups and types of learners they teach. Suggestions for pre-course reading are given.

EVALUATION: At the end of the course teachers participate in a detailed evaluation of the course.

FOLLOW UP: At the end of the course teachers are asked to consider which aspects of the course will be the most relevant to their own teaching situations. On their return they are invited to keep a record of how they have been able to utilise ideas gained on the course in their own classrooms. They are encouraged to share their experiences with their fellow participants by email. Teachers will also have email access to the teacher trainers for discussion and advice after the course.
